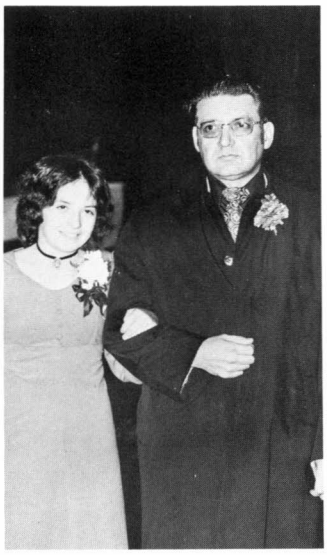
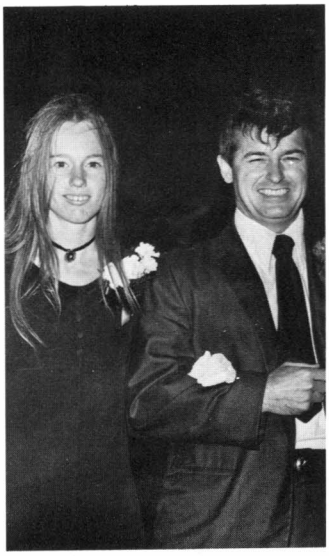
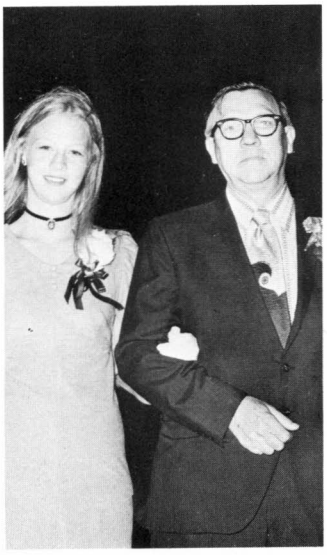
1973 cavalier royalty



hearing my name announced as one of the five girls on homecoming court was the greatest feeling i've ever had. i was very happy and proud to think i was one of the luckier ones to make it.

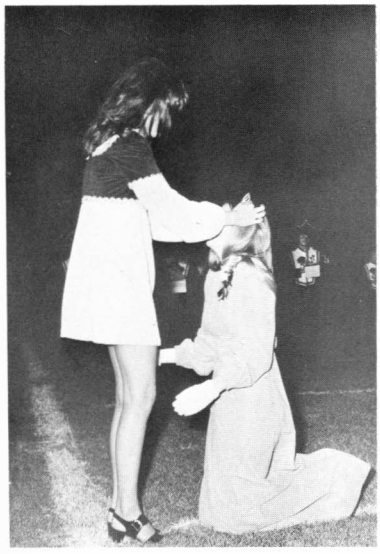


i couldn't believe it was all happening to me. when i heard my name, i thought i was dreaming. i had never, in my whole life, felt that way before. i want to thank each and everyone of you for this wonderful end to a great four years at c.h.s.



i never thought that dreams came true until one did for me and that was making homecoming court. it's a special feeling that's hard to express, but i wish that every girl could feel it and share it with me.

my knees were shaking so bad. i was so nervous, but my friends kept reassuring me. my name was the last one announced, and i never thought i could feel that happy, that proud. all i can say is thanks for wanting me to be a member of the court, i'll never forget that night, or the days that followed as long as i live.



the terror, the happiness, the sadness, and the disbelief was a dream unfolding. representing c.h.s. first as a member of the court, then as the 1973-74 homecoming queen. the greatest dream ever. - if you see someone without a smile, give them one of yours.

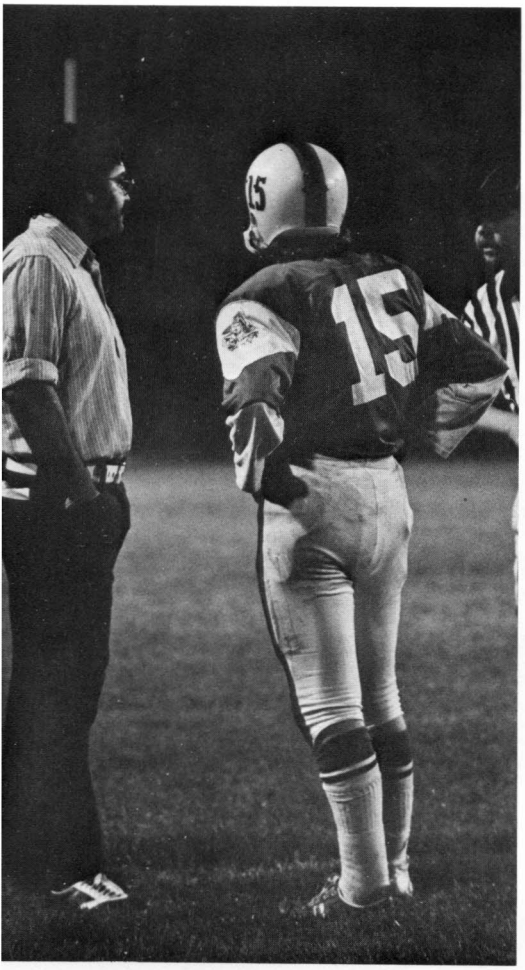
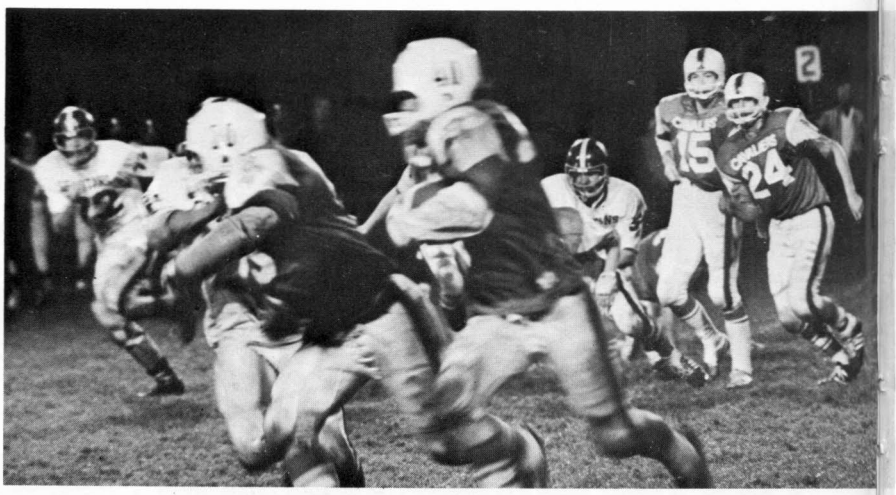
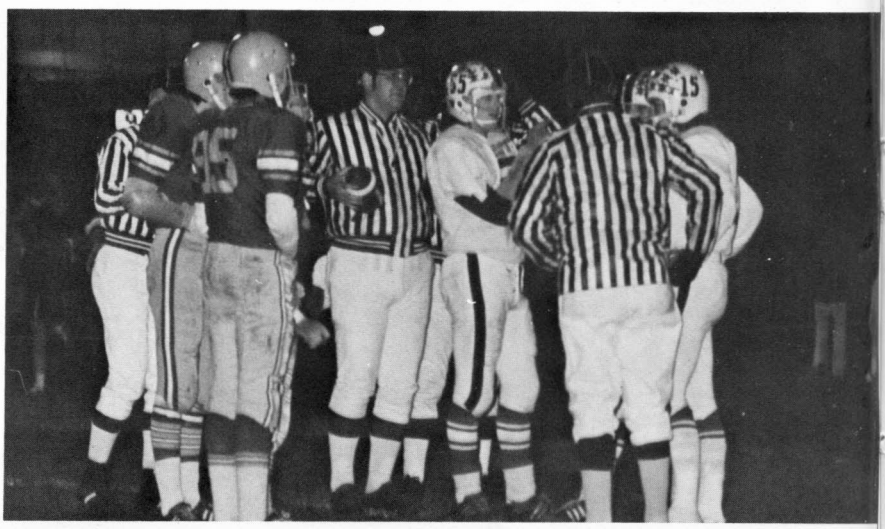
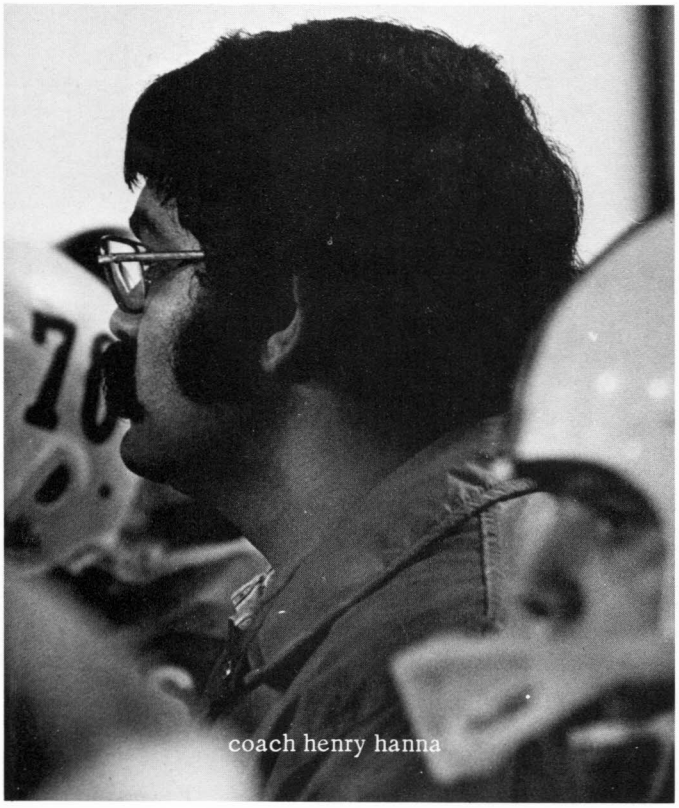
varsity does it all!









coach henry hanna

the cavalier football season started slowly when the first three games ended in defeat. then the cavaliers began a five game winning streak with a 7-6 victory over pinconning. the homecoming victory was the first in six years. the season ended on a sad note with 28-0 loss to st. stephen's. head coach mr. henry hanna commented, "to me a successful season does not depend on the final record alone. it also depends on the internal growth of the individuals on the team. this year even our smallest people were ten feet tall to me."

1st row (1. to r.): ruben rivera, mark sikorski, tom ziegler, mike davenport, mike restifo, eddie green, joe magalski, dan miller, 2nd row: mike maxa, mike schultz, dave wade, marc jaremba, joel dobis, john emeott, john kowalewski, bill koscielski, 3rd row: tim kusowski, john hunter, bob chapa, tom lewis, craig fisher, paul steinke, art moore, dan anklam, 4th row: manager archie tullos, tom tyson, assistant coach mr. dan fisk, head coach mr. henry hanna.
